- Wedding party dressing areas & bathrooms upstairs
- Separate meeting rooms for small groups
- Parking for 50 cars
- Handicap accessible
- Convenient location
- Easy access from I-205, Lake Oswego, and Portland

The Ceremony

Rev. Victoria Etchemendy, an ordained Unity minister, is available to officiate at your special ceremony.

She welcomes all couples who desire a marriage or union by spiritual ceremony, whether or not you are a member of this congregation.

Rev. Etchemendy will work directly with you to create a service that celebrates, honors, and affirms your commitment to one another in a way that is meaningful to you and your special guests.

Unity is a positive, practical, progressive approach to Christianity. Unity's beliefs and Rev. Etchemendy honor the universal truths in all religions and respect each individual's right to choose a spiritual path.

You are also welcome to select your own officiant to perform your special Ceremony.

The Reception

Rain or shine, our facilities can accommodate your reception needs.

Inside, open rooms across the front of the property provide an airy, light-filled space for sit down meals, or standing receptions.

The grounds outside, with over two acres of mature trees and landscaped lawn offer space for al fresco events or a reception tent.

A list of approved caterers will be provided for your convenience.

For more information, please contact our wedding representative to schedule your wedding date, view the facilities, and to make any other arrangements needed.
